Job Overview

The Women's Centre Manager is primarily responsible for managing the Women's Centre (WC) Program by overseeing the house itself, scheduling staff for shifts, producing monthly reports and managing other programs as assigned. Women's Centre Manager must have an adept understanding of domestic violence, mental wellness, homelessness, and exploitation of persons as well as actively display empathy, skillful problem-solving aptitude, and sensitivity to cultural and racial influences and discriminatory biases. Knowledge of the housing sector, case management, and operational excellence are key. The Women's Centre Manager is self-motivated and able to work in a team atmosphere, while being able to perform independently and make difficult decisions when required. This role monitors and directs all program staff in overseeing performance management in a unionized environment and is accountable for embedding operation excellence practices, and reviewing all policy, procedure, and practice of our housing programs. This position is dependent on funding and the budgetary limitations of Ann Davis Transition Society. The position works closely with all levels of the Ann Davis Transition Society team and reports to the Director of Housing, Programs and Services and is a member of the Leadership Team.
