Ways to take Action: Tips from Dr. Jewelles Smith

Dr. Jewelles Smith is an expert in Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (JEDI) work, and specializes in advocacy at the intersection of Gender and Disability. Learn more about Dr. Smith's work on Procne Navigation's site.

Here are some of Dr. Smith's tips for supporting survivors with disabilities:

- Build relationships with other organizations across sectors who can help support survivors with disabilities
- Hire auditors with disabilities to audit organizations' spaces, policies, websites, resources
- Attend trainings about supporting survivors with disabilities
- Follow disability activists online
- Watch Ted Talks & Webinars from Disability Activists
- Watch disability-led movies & TV shows, and read books by disabled authors, including books for children
